

Jeremy Malcolm

Jeremy Malcolm is Consumers International's Project Coordinator for Intellectual Property and Communications, coordinating its global programme on Access to Knowledge (A2K) from CI's Asia-Pacific office in Kuala Lumpur. Jeremy's background is as an information technology and intellectual property lawyer and IT consultant with a research interest in Internet governance.

He is admitted to the bars of the Supreme Court of Western Australia, High Court of Australia and Appellate Division of New York. Jeremy completed his PhD thesis in Law at Murdoch University in 2008 which was the first doctoral examination of the Internet Governance Forum.

Until his most recent appointment Jeremy was the principal of Western Australia's first specialist IT law firm.