Description

7. Is your organization constituted so that participation by individual Internet users who are citizens or residents of countries within the Geographic Region in which your organization is based will predominate in your organization's operation?

- Yes.

8. Describe your organization's constituents/membership (number, citizenship/location, defining characteristic - e.g. profession for professional societies):

- The IBDI is mainly formed by Brazilian citizens but it also has international participants worldwide interested in the study and the development of questions regarding Information Technology, Policy and Law. Actually, the Institute has 9 (nine) directors, each one invested in a strategic and specific executive function. It is the Executive Directorate. All of them are lawyers, judges or professors of Law, with a recognised knowledge in the branch of Information Technology Law.

9. Explain the eligibility requirements (if any) for your organization's constituents/membership (if you provide a written application for admission as a member, you may attach a copy):

- To become a member of the IBDI the candidate must submit an individual application form with some relevant information required by the Institute. This document will be evaluated by the Executive Directorate, which has the powers to decide if the candidate is acceptable or not.

10. In what language/s does your organization conduct its business?

- Brazilian portuguese and english.

11. Provide support for the statement that your organization is self-supporting (by answering "yes" you confirm that it will not rely on ICANN for funding):

- Yes

12. Describe your organization's structure (e.g. governing and decision-making bodies and processes):

- The structure is simple and efficient. The Board members decide then act to defend common interests related to information society.

13. Does your organization commit to supporting its individual constituents'/membership's informed participation in ICANN?

- Yes.

14. Describe how your organization keeps its constituents/membership informed about, and enables them to participate in, decisions regarding issues of interest:

- Mostly by the webpage and events all over Brazil, together with lawyers, engineers and other academic and professional bodies. Since it's a growing area, IBDI is currently working on a new site, probably with free software tools like Wiki.

15. Does your organization post on the Internet publicly-accessible, current information about your organization's goals, structure, description of constituent group(s)/membership, working mechanisms, leadership, and contact(s) (if this information currently is available, provide URLs)?

- Yes. <http://www.ibdi.org.br/index.php?secao=quadrosocial> (in portuguese)
