

FOIWG

ICANN Durban
July 2013

Presentation outline

- Working Group scope
- Processes
- Topics for interpretation
- Activities since ICANN Beijing
- Consent
- Significantly Interested Parties (SIP)
- Revocation

Scope

- Applicable policies and guidelines:
 - RFC 1591 and GAC Principles 2005
- Framework of Interpretation to add “colour and depth” to existing policies and guidelines
- Out of scope:
 - Changing applicable policies or guidelines
 - The IANA Functions contract, including contract implementation issues or procedures

Process

- WG prepares draft set of interpretations for a specific topic in an Interim Report (e.g. Consent Report).
- WG undertakes a public consultation of the draft interpretation.
- WG reviews comments and input from the public consultation.
- WG prepares a Final Report of Interpretation for a topic.

Process (continued)

- GAC and ccNSO support for Final Report for all topics
 - Support from both communities required
- Submission of final report to ICANN Board by ccNSO includes:
 - Confirmation of support by GAC and ccNSO
 - Framework, and its associated recommendations

Topics for interpretation

- Consent - for delegation and re-delegation requests (final report complete)
- Significantly Interested Parties (SIP) (The WG will return to this topic after completing its work on the topic of Revocation)
- Revocation or un-consented re-delegation (The WG has reached a consensus on draft recommendations for the revocation of the delegation of a ccTLD)

Topics for interpretation

- Comprehensive glossary (in progress)
- Recommendations for IANA reports on delegation and re-delegation (The WG will begin this work after completing the Fol)

Activities since ICANN Beijing

- WG met by teleconference 5 times
- Published a progress report on activities
- Is currently concluding the topic of Revocation.

Status on Consent

- The final report on consent can be found at:
www.ccnso.icann.org/workinggroups/foiwg.htm
- It will be included in the final report from the FOIWG to the ccNSO and GAC.

Status on SIP

- “Significantly Interested Parties” or SIP:
 - Public consultation on these initial recommendations is now complete.
 - The FOIWG will return to this topic after completing its work on the topic of Revocation.

Status on Revocation

- The FOIWG has reached a consensus on draft recommendations for the revocation of the delegation of a ccTLD
- We will continue F2F discussions in Durban, with a view to finalizing the draft, to then open it for public consultation.
- We aim to publish its Interim Report on this topic before the Buenos Aires ICANN meeting.

Details on Revocation

- Revocation of the delegation of a ccTLD may be sought in cases where:
 - The designated manager has substantially misbehaved
 - There are persistent problems with the proper operation of a domain (ccTLD).
- The manager has the right to appeal a notice of revocation to an independent body.

FOIWG meeting in Durban

- Thursday 18 July, 9:00 to 12:00 in Hall 4D
- Main focus of this meeting is Revocation topic
- As always, observers are welcome
