Requests

the Minimum Required Information for a Whois Data Request

Who are you?

Including, if you represent someone, permission to act on their behalf

What is the domain?

What is your legitimate interest?

Including all information you think is relevant to the balancing test

Assurance that you think you have a legal need for the data.

Assurance that you will treat the data as sensitive.

This is someone's PII

Assurance that you have not misrepresented anything

Keeps honest people honest

Operationalizing

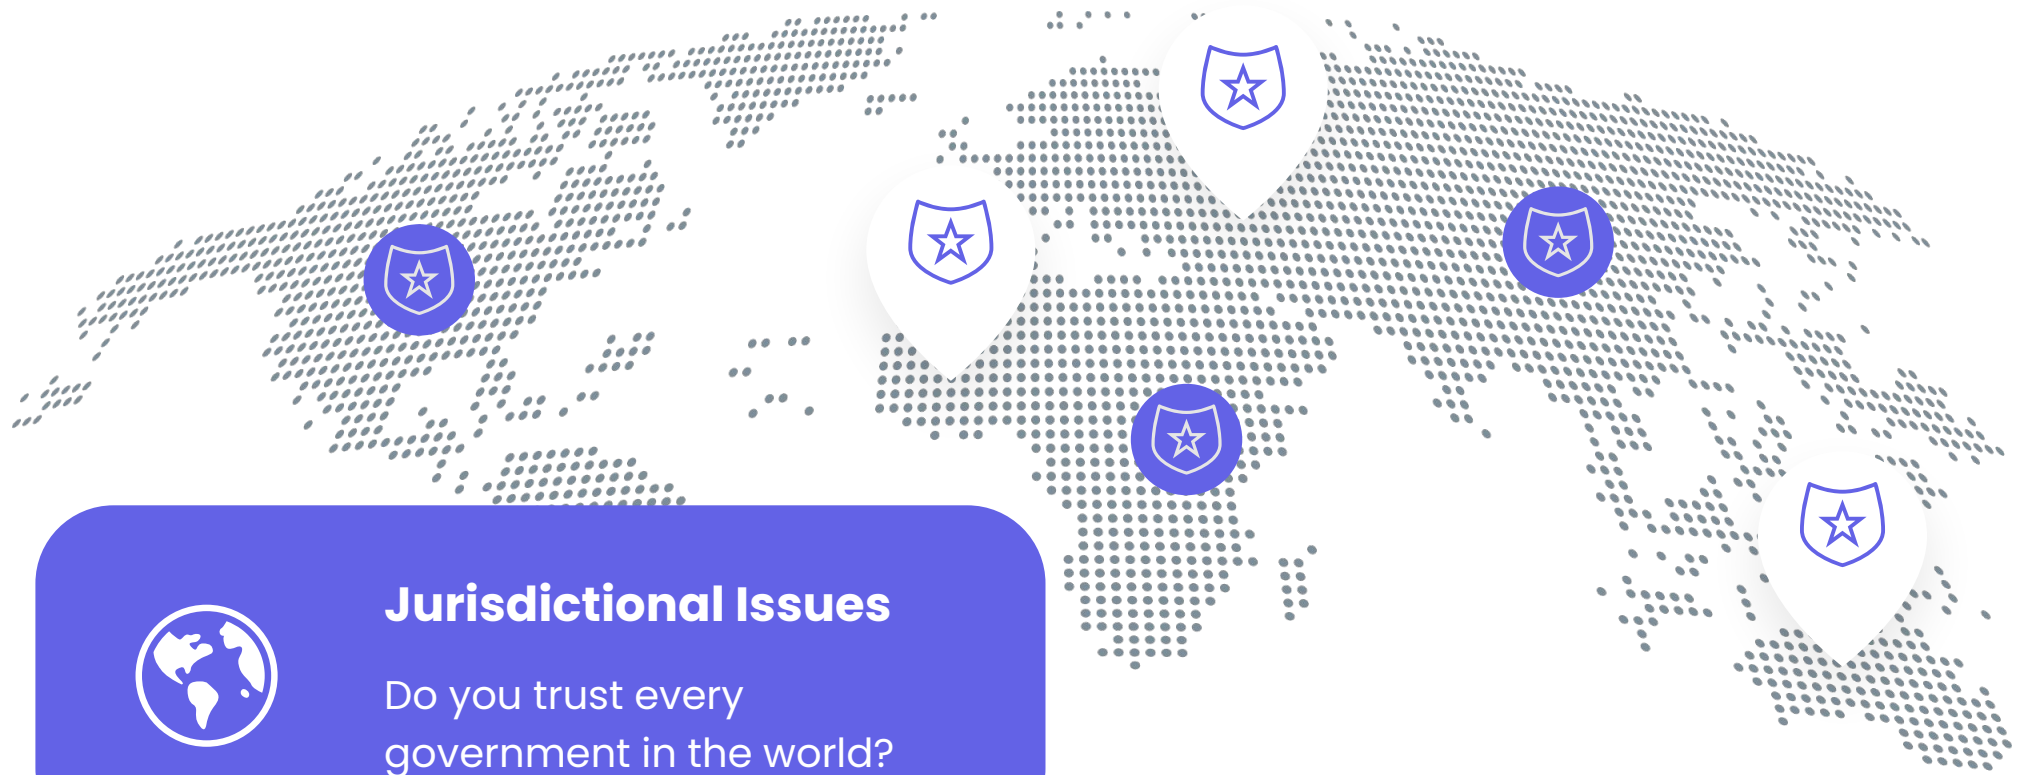

- Bulk requests are rarely feasible
- Click-through forms invite casualness
