

The process so far...

- Review of ALAC is part of ICANN's commitment to continuous improvement
- Board appointed Westlake Consulting to undertake an independent review
- After research and consultation with the community, Westlake have provided a draft report for review. (Executive Summary Translations available shortly)

This week

- Today's workshop: understanding the Westlake report
- Wednesday workshop: beginning the conversation about the report and the best way forward
- "Office Hours" sessions: meet BGC Working Group Members informally and give comments
 - Wednesday 9-11, Hemingway Rm
 - Thursday 10-12, Corner of the foyer farthest from meeting rooms

Next steps

- The Westlake report is one perspective, we need to hear other perspectives from the community
- Consultation on the draft report: comments close 11 July (NB extension to previous date)
- Final report published (inc translations) 18 July
- Public comment period
- BGC WG consideration of all perspectives
- Draft “interim” report produced in October for consultation at the Cairo meeting
- Final report for the March 2009 ICANN meeting with implementation plan to follow

Today

- Summary of the report from Westlake
- Time for conversation to improve our understanding of the report and the thinking behind it
- We encourage comments through the public participation website
