HYDERABAD – Community Recognition Program
Tuesday, November 08, 2016 – 13:15 to 13:45 IST
ICANN57 | Hyderabad, India

UNKNOWN SPEAKER: Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome David Olive, senior vice president for policy development support.

[Applause]

DAVID OLIVE: Thank you and good afternoon. Community-driven work at ICANN is the core of our mission. Countless hours are spent in working groups across our supporting organizations and advisory committees and other groups, including the nomination committee.

Together, our community develops and refines policies that ensure the security, stability, and resiliency of the global Internet.

The policy development team and our colleagues are proud to help facilitate their work.

As ICANN 57 comes to an end, it's important to acknowledge the vibrant role and critical impact of this community. Please join me in welcoming ICANN board director chair Steve Crocker and ICANN president and CEO Goran Marby to join me on stage, and my colleague, Carlos Reyes, to preside over this program as we recognize the community leaders.

Fellows?

[Applause]

CARLOS REYES: Thank you, David.

Today we recognize 36 community leaders, though not everyone could join us for this program. We will recognize community leaders in alphabetical order, beginning with the supporting organizations, followed by their advisory committees, and then the nominating committee.

Community leaders, please approach the stage to receive your certificate.

We begin with the Address Supporting Organization.

We are very grateful for the collective and individual effort, skills, and time of our community leaders. In that spirit, the ICANN board of directors formally recognized these community leaders with a resolution during the annual general meeting.

Community recognition is a year-long effort at ICANN. From the community-driven Multistakeholder Ethos Award to the Leadership Award presented on Saturday, the growth and evolution of ICANN as a multistakeholder organization depends on the sustained engagement and recognition of our community.

Thank you for joining us.

[Applause]

Just a quick note, as a reminder, the IANA stewardship transition reception is tonight at 6:30 in the Novatel lawn. Thank you.
